Election petitions

92. Election petitions – (1) Where any candidate or five electors are dissatisfied with the result of any election held in the constituency for which that candidate is nominated, or in which those electors are registered, they may, within seven days after the declaration of the results of the poll by the Chief Electoral Officer by petition filed in the Court demand an inquiry into the conduct of the election or any candidate or other person thereat.

(2) Every petition shall be accompanied by a filing fee of $1,000.

(3) The petition shall be in Form 14 and shall be heard and determined before a Judge of the Court.

(4) The petition shall allege the specific grounds on which the complaint is founded, and no grounds other than those stated shall be investigated except by leave of the Court and upon reasonable notice being given, which leave may be given on such terms and conditions as the Court deems just:

Provided that evidence may be given to prove that the election of any unsuccessful candidate would be invalid in the same manner as if the petition had complained of his or her election.

93. Security for costs – (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, in any proceedings where an election petition is filed and at any stage after the filing thereof, the Court shall order security to be given by the petitioner personally for the costs of the hearing of the petition and shall order the hearing of the petition to be stayed until such security has been given.

(2) Every order made pursuant to this section shall fix a day by which security shall be given and may fix such other terms and conditions as the Court thinks just.

(3) In fixing the amount of security for costs the Court shall have regard to the costs, which the respondent or any other party to the petition will probably incur, provided that any amount so fixed shall not be less than $5,000.

(4) If any petitioner fails to comply with any order for security for costs the Court shall dismiss the petition for want of prosecution.

(5) The provisions of this section shall apply notwithstanding that any respondent or other interested party (if any) may have previously taken any step in the action.

94. Candidate may oppose petition – Any candidate or other interested party (if any) may, at any time before the commencement of the inquiry, file in the Court a notice in writing of his or her intention to oppose the petition, and thereupon the candidate or other interested party (if any) shall be deemed to be a party to the petition.

95. Time for holding inquiry – The inquiry shall be commenced as soon as practicable after the filing of the petition, but not earlier than fourteen days after the day on which the poll was closed, and not less than seven clear days' public notice shall be given of the time and place at which the inquiry will be held.

96. Jurisdiction on inquiry – (1) Subject to this Act, the Court shall have jurisdiction to inquire into and adjudicate on any matter relating to the petition in such manner as the Court thinks fit.

(2) For the purpose of the inquiry, the Court shall have and may exercise all the powers of citing parties, compelling evidence, adjourning from time to time and from place to place, and maintaining order that the Court would have in its civil jurisdiction, and, in addition, may at any time during the inquiry direct a recount or scrutiny of the votes given at the election.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), no petition may be filed or inquired into on the grounds that any person's name was or was not on a roll by reason of the presence or absence of that person in or from a particular constituency.

97. Certain irregularities to be disregarded – No election shall be declared void by reason of any irregularity in any of the proceedings preliminary to the polling or by reason of any failure to hold a poll at any place appointed for holding a poll, or to comply with the directions provided under this Act as to the taking of the poll or the counting of the votes or by reason of any mistake, in the use of the forms provided under this Act, or failure to comply with the times prescribed for doing any act, if it appears to the Court that the election was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in and by this Act and that the irregularity, failure or mistake did not affect the result of the poll.

98. Result of inquiry - (1) Without limiting the Court's powers under section 96(1), where a candidate who has been elected at any election is found at the hearing of an election petition to have committed any corrupt practice at the election, that candidate's election shall be void.

(2) Where it is found by the Court at the hearing of an election petition that corrupt or illegal practices committed in relation to the election for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of any candidates thereat have so extensively prevailed that they may be reasonably supposed to have affected the result, the candidate's election shall be void.

(3) Where at the hearing of an election petition claiming the seat for any person, a candidate is found by the Court to have committed bribery, treating or undue influence in respect of any person who voted at the election, there shall, on a scrutiny, be struck off from the number of votes appearing to have been received by the candidate, the vote of every person who voted at the election and has been proved to have been so bribed, treated or unduly influenced.

99. Real justice to be observed – At the hearing of any election petition the Court shall be guided by the substantial merits and justice of the case and the Court may admit such evidence as in its opinion may assist it to deal effectively with the case, notwithstanding that the evidence may not otherwise be admissible in the Court.

100. Report to police – Where on any inquiry conducted under this Part the Court is of the opinion that any –

- (a) electoral offence; or
- (b) corrupt practice; or
- (c) wilful irregularity,

has been committed by any person, the Court shall refer the matter to the Commissioner of Police.

101. Costs of petition - All costs of and incidental to the presentation of an election petition, and to the proceedings consequent thereon, except such as are by this Act otherwise provided for shall be defrayed by the parties to the petition in such manner and in such proportions as the Court may determine; and in particular, any costs which, in the opinion of the Court have been caused by vexatious conduct, unfounded allegations, or unfounded objections on the part either of the petitioner or of the respondent, and any needless expenses incurred or caused on the part of the petitioner or respondent, may be ordered to be defrayed by the parties by whom they were caused or incurred, whether those parties are or are not on the whole successful.

102. Decision of Court to be final - (1) Every determination or order by the Court in respect of or in connection with any proceedings under sections 28, 34, or 79 , or in respect of or in connection with an election petition shall be final and conclusive and without appeal.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), where any party to any proceeding to which this section applies is dissatisfied with any decision of the Court as being erroneous in any point of law, that party may appeal to the Court of Appeal by way of case stated for the opinion of that Court on a question of law only.

(3) In its determination of the appeal, the Court of Appeal may confirm, modify or reverse the decision appealed against or any part of that decision.

(4) Notice of appeal shall not operate as a stay of proceedings in respect of the decision to which the appeal relates unless the Court or the Court of Appeal so orders.

(5) The determination of the Court of Appeal on any appeal to which this section applies shall be final and conclusive and without further appeal.

103. Court of Appeal may refer appeals back for reconsideration - (1) Notwithstanding anything in section 102, the Court of Appeal may, instead of determining the appeal to which section 102 applies, direct the Court to reconsider, either generally or in respect of any specified matter, the whole or any specific part of the matter to which the appeal relates.

(2) In giving any direction under this section the Court of Appeal shall -
(a) advise the Court of its reasons for so doing; and
(b) give to the Court such directions as it thinks just as to the rehearing or reconsideration or otherwise of the whole or any part of the matter that is referred back for rehearing or reconsideration.

(3) In rehearing or reconsidering any matter referred back to it pursuant to this section, the Court shall have regard to the Court of Appeal's reasons for giving a direction under subsection (1), and the Court of Appeal's directions under subsection (2).

104. Certificate of Court as to result of election - (1) At the conclusion of the hearing of an election petition or the appeal, the Court or the Court of Appeal as the case may be, shall determine whether the member whose election or return is complained of, or any and what other person, was duly elected or returned, or whether the election was void, and shall forthwith certify in writing the determination to the Chief Electoral Officer.
