

PUBLIC NOTICE

To all Importers and Exporters

Effective from 28th of February 2023, the Revenue Management Division –Cook Islands Customs Service will no longer be accepting the remaining Paper entries - Excise, Temporary and Export Entries.

These remaining entries (declarations) must now be submitted via the new customs automated system ASYCUDA World (AW).

Companies completing their own excise, temporary and export entries (declarations) will need to register as a user with the Customs National Project team before they can use AW and then register their business in AW.

Companies who utilize Customs Brokers to process excise, temporary and export entries will need to ensure that their broker registers their business in AW.

The following documents must be provided with your business registration application;

- Certificate of Incorporation
- Certificate of Good Standing Long form

(Certificates sourced from the Ministry of Justice)

To register as an AW user, applicants must complete CICS Form 008 (available on Customs website) and provide the required information.

Applicants must also have successfully completed a Customs Declarant Course.

The Customs National Project Team is here to help with any queries and are available at the below contact details to assist.
